ARTICLE I — PRELIMINARY PROVISIONS

Section 1: Short Title

This document shall be cited as The Constitution of the Abubakar Tafawa Balewa University Developers Club (ATBUDEVS), Version 1.0.

Section 2: Establishment

There is hereby established a student organization to be known as the Abubakar Tafawa Balewa University Developers Club (ATBUDEVS).

The Club shall be a non-partisan, non-profit, student-led, educational, innovation-driven, and technology-focused organization established to promote software development, digital innovation, research, entrepreneurship, and community service within Abubakar Tafawa Balewa University and beyond.

Section 3: Legal Status

The Club shall operate in accordance with:

1. This Constitution.
2. The rules and regulations of Abubakar Tafawa Balewa University.
3. All applicable laws of the Federal Republic of Nigeria.

In the event of any conflict between this Constitution and the regulations of the University, the latter shall prevail to the extent of the inconsistency.

Section 4: Supremacy of the Constitution

This Constitution shall be the supreme governing instrument of the Club.

Every member, officer, committee, programme, project, regulation, and policy of the Club shall derive its authority from and remain subject to this Constitution.

Any act, decision, regulation, or policy inconsistent with this Constitution shall, to the extent of its inconsistency, be null and void.

ARTICLE II — VISION, MISSION, PHILOSOPHY, CORE VALUES, AIMS AND OBJECTIVES

Section 1: Vision

The vision of the Abubakar Tafawa Balewa University Developers Club (ATBUDEVS) shall be:

To become the foremost student-led technology community in Abubakar Tafawa Balewa University and a leading centre of technological excellence in Africa, empowering students to innovate, build transformative digital solutions, and contribute meaningfully to national and global development through technology.

Section 2: Mission

The mission of the Club shall be:

i. To inspire, educate, mentor, and empower students with practical technological knowledge and professional skills.

ii. To cultivate a culture of innovation, collaboration, research, creativity, and lifelong learning.

iii. To bridge the gap between academic learning and industry practice through real-world projects, mentorship, internships, and partnerships.

iv. To nurture ethical developers, innovators, entrepreneurs, and technology leaders capable of solving societal challenges through technology.

Section 3: Philosophy

The philosophy of the Club shall be founded on the belief that technology is not merely a profession but a tool for solving problems, creating opportunities, advancing knowledge, and improving the quality of human life.

Accordingly, every activity of the Club shall be guided by innovation, integrity, collaboration, excellence, inclusiveness, and service.

Section 4: Core Values

The Club shall uphold the following Core Values:

i. Excellence

The pursuit of the highest standards in learning, innovation, leadership, and service.

ii. Integrity

Honesty, transparency, accountability, and ethical conduct in every activity.

iii. Innovation

The courage to imagine, create, experiment, and solve problems using technology.

iv. Collaboration

The belief that great achievements result from teamwork, mutual respect, and shared knowledge.

Such channels may include:

i. Official Email.

ii. Official Website.

iii. Official WhatsApp Community.

iv. Official Telegram Channel.

v. Official Discord Server.

vi. Official Social Media Platforms.

Official communications issued through these platforms shall have the same effect as written notices where properly authorized.

Section 7: Digital Governance

Recognizing the technological nature of the Club, all organs shall promote digital governance.

Accordingly:

i. Meetings may be conducted physically, virtually, or through hybrid arrangements.

ii. Electronic voting may be adopted where provided by this Constitution.

iii. Official records may be maintained in digital form.

iv. Electronic signatures may be used on internal documents where approved by the Executive Council.

v. Cloud-based document management systems may be adopted for official records.

Section 8: Accountability of Organs

Every organ established under this Constitution shall:

i. Keep accurate records of its proceedings.

ii. Submit periodic reports to the appropriate authority.

iii. Manage resources entrusted to it responsibly.

iv. Act in the best interest of the Club.

v. Operate within the limits prescribed by this Constitution.

Section 9: Committees

The Executive Council may establish Standing or Ad-hoc Committees for the efficient discharge of the functions of the Club.

No Committee shall exercise powers beyond those delegated to it.

Every Committee shall submit reports to the Executive Council within such time as may be prescribed.

Section 10: Institutional Continuity

Every organ of the Club shall maintain proper records to ensure continuity of administration.

Outgoing officers shall hand over all documents, digital assets, reports, passwords, equipment, and other official property to their successors not later than fourteen (14) days after leaving office.

Failure to comply with this provision shall constitute misconduct.

Section 11: Protection of Institutional Integrity

Every organ shall safeguard the reputation, independence, and credibility of the Club.

No organ shall take any action capable of:

i. Bringing the Club into disrepute.

ii. Undermining its constitutional authority.

iii. Jeopardizing its recognition by the University.

iv. Compromising its partnerships or professional standing.

Section 12: Annual Institutional Review

The Executive Council shall conduct an annual review of the performance of all organs of the Club.

The review shall evaluate:

i. Programme implementation.

ii. Financial accountability.

iii. Member participation.

iv. Technical achievements.

v. Community impact.

vi. Compliance with this Constitution.

The findings of the review shall be presented to the General Assembly as part of the Annual Report.

ARTICLE VI — THE GENERAL ASSEMBLY

Section 1: Establishment

There shall be a General Assembly of the Club, which shall constitute the highest decision-making and deliberative body of the Abubakar Tafawa Balewa University Developers Club (ATBUDEVS).

The General Assembly shall consist of all duly registered members of the Club.

c. Through a hybrid arrangement.

The President may convene an emergency meeting whenever circumstances so require.

Section 6: Notice of Meetings

Notice of every ordinary meeting shall be issued by the Secretary General not less than forty -eight (48) hours before the scheduled meeting.

The notice shall include:

i. Date.

ii. Time.

iii. Venue or virtual meeting link.

iv. Agenda.

Emergency meetings may be convened with shorter notice where the urgency of the matter so demands.

Section 7: Quorum

The quorum for a meeting of the Executive Council shall be two-thirds (2/3) of its members.

No official business shall be transacted in the absence of a quorum.

Section 8: Decision-Making

The Executive Council shall strive to reach decisions by consensus.

Where consensus cannot be achieved, decisions shall be determined by a simple majority of members present and voting.

In the event of an equality of votes, the President shall exercise a casting vote.

Section 9: Attendance

Every Executive Officer shall attend meetings regularly.

An Executive Officer who is unable to attend a meeting shall notify the Secretary General in writing before the meeting, stating the reasons for the absence.

Any Executive Officer who is absent from three (3) consecutive meetings without reasonable justification shall be liable to disciplinary action.

Section 10: Executive Records

The Executive Council shall maintain:

i. Minutes of meetings.

ii. Attendance records.

iii. Executive resolutions.

iv. Financial records.

v. Annual reports.

vi. Project reports.

vii. Partnership agreements.

viii. Digital asset inventories.

All records may be maintained in electronic form and shall constitute the official records of the Club.

Section 11: Emergency Powers

Where circumstances require immediate action in the interest of the Club, the President may take such provisional measures as are reasonably necessary.

Provided that:

i. The action shall not contravene this Constitution.

ii. The Executive Council shall be informed within seventy-two (72) hours.

iii. Such action shall be presented for ratification at the next meeting of the Executive Council.

Section 12: Vacancies

A seat on the Executive Council shall become vacant where the holder:

i. Resigns from office.

ii. Ceases to be a student of the University.

iii. Dies.

iv. Is removed from office in accordance with this Constitution.

v. Is declared medically incapable of discharging the functions of office for a continuous period exceeding three (3) months.

vi. Is absent from three (3) consecutive Executive Council meetings without reasonable justification.

Section 13: Filling of Vacancies

Where a vacancy occurs:

i. The Vice President shall automatically assume the office of President where the office of the President becomes vacant.

ii. In respect of any other elective office, the Executive Council may appoint an Acting Officer from among qualified members pending the conduct of a by-election or confirmation, where necessary.

iii. Any appointment made under this Section shall be subject to ratification by the General Assembly at its next meeting.

Section 14: Executive Accountability

Every Executive Officer shall be accountable to the General Assembly and shall:

i. Submit periodic reports of activities.

ii. Maintain proper records of official transactions.

iii. Disclose conflicts of interest where applicable.

iv. Use Club resources solely for official purposes.

v. Perform the duties of office with honesty, diligence, and professionalism.

Section 15: Official Seal and Authentication

The official seal of the Club shall be kept in the custody of the Secretary General.

Official documents issued by the Club shall be authenticated by the signatures of the President and the Secretary General.

Financial documents shall additionally require the signature of either the Treasurer or the Financial Secretary.

Section 16: Executive Retreat and Strategic Planning

The Executive Council shall, at least once in every academic session, convene an Executive Retreat for the purpose of:

i. Reviewing the implementation of the strategic plan.

ii. Evaluating the performance of the Executive Council.

iii. Setting priorities for the remainder of the tenure.

iv. Strengthening teamwork and institutional capacity.

The outcome of the retreat shall form part of the Club's Annual Report.

Section 17: Executive Code of Conduct

Every Executive Officer shall:

i. Place the interests of the Club above personal interests.

ii. Exercise the powers of office in good faith.

iii. Avoid abuse of office.

iv. Refrain from using the office for personal gain.

v. Maintain confidentiality in respect of sensitive matters.

vi. Promote unity and cooperation among members.

vii. Uphold the dignity and reputation of the Club at all times.

A breach of this Section shall constitute misconduct and may attract disciplinary measures under this Constitution.

This version is stronger than the earlier draft because it:

Separates Executive powers from Executive officers.

Introduces executive retreats for strategic planning.

Limits emergency powers with mandatory ratification.

Requires General Assembly ratification of acting appointments.

Clearly establishes authentication of official documents.

Section 3: Handover

Outgoing Executive Officers shall surrender all passwords, repositories, digital accounts, storage devices, access credentials, and electronic records to their successors within fourteen (14) days after leaving office.

Failure to comply shall constitute serious misconduct.

Section 4: Intellectual Property

Unless otherwise agreed in writing, all software, publications, designs, educational materials, branding assets, and other works created specifically for the Club in the course of official Club activities shall belong to the Club.

Nothing in this Section shall prejudice the moral rights of individual creators, who shall receive appropriate recognition for their contributions.

Section 5: Open-Source Projects

The Club may develop, maintain, and contribute to open-source software projects.

The Executive Council shall determine the licensing model for such projects in accordance with internationally recognized open-source licences.

Section 6: Data Protection

The Club shall take reasonable measures to protect the personal information and digital records of its members.

No member shall access, disclose, or misuse confidential data without lawful authorization.

Section 7: Cybersecurity

The Executive Council shall establish and periodically review cybersecurity practices to safeguard the Club's digital infrastructure against unauthorized access, data breaches, or other security threats.

Section 8: Official Records

All official records of the Club, whether in physical or electronic form, shall be preserved by the Secretary General and shall remain the property of the Club.

Records of historical significance shall be archived for future reference.

ARTICLE XIV — ETHICS AND PROFESSIONAL CONDUCT

Section 1: Code of Ethics

Every member and Executive Officer of the Club shall uphold the highest standards of integrity, professionalism, honesty, respect, responsibility, and accountability in all activities undertaken in the name of the Club.

Every member shall conduct himself or herself in a manner that promotes the dignity, reputation, and objectives of the Club and Abubakar Tafawa Balewa University.

Section 2: Professional Behaviour

Every member shall:

i. Demonstrate honesty and integrity in all dealings.

ii. Respect the dignity and rights of every person.

iii. Promote teamwork and collaboration.

iv. Observe discipline during meetings and official activities.

v. Exercise courtesy in both physical and digital interactions.

vi. Avoid conduct capable of bringing the Club into disrepute.

Section 3: Academic Integrity

Members shall uphold academic honesty at all times.

Accordingly, no member shall:

i. Engage in plagiarism.

ii. Present another person's work as his or her own.

iii. Falsify research findings or project results.

iv. Encourage academic dishonesty.

Members found guilty of academic misconduct shall be subject to disciplinary measures in accordance with this Constitution and the regulations of the University.

Section 4: Ethical Use of Technology

Members shall use technology responsibly and for lawful purposes.

Accordingly, members shall not:

i. Develop or distribute malicious software.

ii. Engage in hacking without lawful authorization.

iii. Participate in cyber fraud or identity theft.

iv. Circumvent security systems unlawfully.

v. Use Club resources for illegal digital activities.

Nothing in this Section shall prohibit lawful cybersecurity research, ethical hacking competitions, or security testing conducted with proper authorization.

Section 5: Respect for Intellectual Property

Members shall respect copyrights, patents, trademarks, software licences, and other intellectual property rights.

No member shall knowingly copy, distribute, or commercialize another person's work without appropriate authorization or acknowledgement.

Section 6: Confidentiality

A member entrusted with confidential information relating to the Club shall not disclose such information except:

i. With proper authorization;

ii. Where disclosure is required by law; or

iii. Where necessary to protect the legitimate interests of the Club.

This obligation shall continue even after the member ceases to hold office or membership.

Section 7: Responsible Use of Artificial Intelligence

Members shall ensure that Artificial Intelligence technologies are used responsibly, transparently, and ethically.

AI-generated content used for official Club activities shall, where appropriate, be reviewed by a human before publication or implementation.

Members shall not knowingly use Artificial Intelligence to deceive, manipulate, discriminate against, or unlawfully harm any individual or organization.

Section 8: Equality and Non-Discrimination

Every member shall be treated with dignity and respect.

No member shall be discriminated against on the basis of ethnicity, religion, gender, disability, language, faculty, department, or socioeconomic background.

The Club shall promote diversity, inclusion, and equal opportunity in all its programmes and activities.

Section 9: Harassment

The Club shall maintain a safe, respectful, and inclusive environment.

Harassment in any form, including physical, verbal, psychological, sexual, online, or cyber harassment, is prohibited.

Any allegation of harassment shall be investigated fairly, promptly, and confidentially.

Section 10: Conflict of Interest

Every Executive Officer or member participating in a decision on behalf of the Club shall disclose any personal, financial, academic, or professional interest that may influence the impartial discharge of his or her responsibilities.

Where such conflict exists, the affected person shall refrain from participating in the decision unless otherwise permitted by the Executive Council.

Section 11: Public Representation

Only officers authorized by the Executive Council shall issue official statements or represent the Club before external organizations, media houses, government agencies, or partner institutions.

Members representing the Club shall conduct themselves with professionalism and shall faithfully promote the objectives and values of the Club.

Section 12: Use of Club Identity

The name, logo, official colours, official documents, social media accounts, and other identifying symbols of the Club shall not be used for personal, political, commercial, or unlawful purposes without the prior approval of the Executive Council.

Section 13: Gifts and Benefits

No Executive Officer or member shall solicit or accept gifts, favours, or other benefits intended to improperly influence the discharge of his or her official responsibilities.

Nominal gifts presented as a matter of courtesy or protocol may be accepted, provided they do not compromise the integrity or independence of the recipient.

Section 14: Accountability

Every Executive Officer shall be personally accountable for decisions taken in the discharge of official responsibilities.

The plea that an action was taken on the instruction of another officer shall not, by itself, constitute a defence against misconduct.

Section 15: Enforcement

Every member shall have a duty to uphold this Code of Ethics.

Any alleged breach of this Article may be reported to the Executive Council or the Ethics and Disciplinary Committee for investigation and appropriate action in accordance with this Constitution.

ARTICLE XV — DISCIPLINE

Section 1: Guiding Principles

The disciplinary process of the Club shall be guided by the principles of:

i. Fair hearing.

ii. Natural justice.

iii. Impartiality.

iv. Due process.

v. Transparency.

vi. Accountability.

No disciplinary measure shall be taken except in accordance with this Constitution.

Section 2: Acts of Misconduct

A member or Executive Officer shall be deemed to have committed misconduct where he or she:

i. Violates any provision of this Constitution.

ii. Disobeys a lawful directive of the Executive Council.

iii. Engages in fraud, forgery, theft, or financial impropriety.

iv. Misappropriates the funds or property of the Club.

v. Falsifies official records or documents.

vi. Brings the Club into disrepute through his or her conduct.

vii. Engages in harassment, bullying, discrimination, or intimidation.

viii. Uses the name, logo, or resources of the Club without authorization.

ix. Discloses confidential information without lawful authority.

x. Commits cybercrime or any unlawful digital activity.

xi. Sabotages or deliberately disrupts the lawful activities of the Club.

xii. Knowingly provides false information to the Club.

xiii. Commits any act prejudicial to the interests, reputation, or objectives of the Club.

Section 3: Gross Misconduct

The following shall constitute gross misconduct:

i. Embezzlement or misappropriation of Club funds.

ii. Deliberate destruction or theft of Club property.

iii. Electoral malpractice.

iv. Abuse of office.

v. Persistent violation of this Constitution.

vi. Gross insubordination.

vii. Criminal conduct involving dishonesty or moral turpitude.

viii. Serious misconduct that significantly damages the reputation or interests of the Club.

Gross misconduct may attract suspension, removal from office, expulsion, restitution, or any combination of these sanctions.

Section 4: Complaint Procedure

Any member may submit a written complaint against another member or Executive Officer.

A complaint shall:

i. Be signed by the complainant.

ii. State the facts giving rise to the complaint.

iii. Be accompanied by any available supporting evidence.

Anonymous complaints shall not ordinarily be entertained unless supported by credible independent evidence.

Section 5: Preliminary Review

Upon receipt of a complaint, the Ethics and Disciplinary Committee shall conduct a preliminary review to determine whether a prima facie case exists.

Where no prima facie case is established, the complaint shall be dismissed and the complainant shall be informed accordingly.

Section 6: Investigation

Where a prima facie case exists, the Ethics and Disciplinary Committee shall investigate the matter.

During the investigation, the Committee may:

i. Invite witnesses.

ii. Examine documents.

iii. Review digital records where relevant.

iv. Request written explanations from the parties involved.

All investigations shall be conducted fairly, confidentially, and without undue delay.

Section 7: Right to Fair Hearing

Every person accused of misconduct shall have the right to:

i. Be informed in writing of the allegations.

ii. Be given reasonable time to prepare a defence.

iii. Present evidence and call witnesses.

iv. Respond to evidence presented against him or her.

v. Be heard before any decision is reached.

No person shall be found liable for misconduct without being afforded a fair hearing.

Section 8: Decisions

Upon the conclusion of its investigation, the Ethics and Disciplinary Committee shall prepare a written report containing:

i. Findings of fact.

ii. Applicable provisions of this Constitution.

iii. Recommendations.

The Executive Council shall consider the report and make a decision, except where this Constitution requires the approval of the General Assembly.

Section 9: Disciplinary Measures

Subject to the gravity of the misconduct, the following sanctions may be imposed:

i. Verbal warning.

ii. Written warning.

iii. Apology.

iv. Restitution.

v. Suspension from specified activities.

vi. Suspension of membership.

vii. Removal from office.

viii. Disqualification from contesting elections for a specified period.

ix. Expulsion from the Club.

The sanction imposed shall be proportionate to the misconduct established.

Section 10: Removal of Executive Officers

An Executive Officer may be removed from office where he or she:

i. Commits gross misconduct.

ii. Grossly violates this Constitution.

iii. Is guilty of financial impropriety.

iv. Abandons the duties of office.

v. Is declared incapable of performing the functions of office.

vi. Acts in a manner seriously prejudicial to the interests of the Club.

Removal from office shall require:

a. A recommendation by the Ethics and Disciplinary Committee; and

b. Approval by a two-thirds (2/3) majority of members present and voting at a General Assembly convened for that purpose.

The officer concerned shall be given an opportunity to defend himself or herself before any vote is taken.

Section 11: Appeals

Any member aggrieved by a disciplinary decision may appeal in writing to the General Assembly within fourteen (14) days of the decision.

The decision of the General Assembly shall be final, subject to the regulations of the University.

Section 12: Interim Suspension

Where the continued participation of a member or Executive Officer may prejudice an investigation or threaten the interests of the Club, the Executive Council may place the individual on interim suspension pending the conclusion of disciplinary proceedings.

An interim suspension shall not constitute a finding of guilt and shall not exceed thirty (30) days unless extended by the General Assembly for good cause.

Section 13: Record of Disciplinary Proceedings

The Secretary General shall maintain confidential records of all disciplinary proceedings and decisions.

Such records shall be securely preserved and accessed only by authorized persons.

Section 14: Rehabilitation

The Club shall encourage rehabilitation and reconciliation where appropriate.

A member who has served a disciplinary sanction and demonstrated genuine reform may, upon application, be restored to good standing in accordance with this Constitution.

Section 15: Relationship with University Discipline

Nothing in this Constitution shall prevent the University from exercising its disciplinary authority over any member.

Where a matter falls within the jurisdiction of the University, the Club may cooperate with the appropriate University authorities.

ARTICLE XVI — THE PATRON

Section 1: Establishment

There shall be a Patron of the Abubakar Tafawa Balewa University Developers Club (ATBUDEVS), who shall serve as the principal ceremonial head, adviser, and ambassador of the Club.

The Patron shall not be an Executive Officer and shall not participate in the day-to-day administration of the Club.

Section 2: Appointment

The Patron shall be appointed by a resolution of the Executive Council and shall be ratified by a simple majority of the General Assembly.

The Patron shall ordinarily be a person of proven integrity, distinguished character, and demonstrable commitment to education, technology, innovation, leadership, or community development.

Section 3: Qualification

A person shall be qualified for appointment as Patron if he or she:

i. Possesses an outstanding record of public service, academic achievement, professional excellence, or leadership.

ii. Supports the aims and objectives of the Club.

iii. Is willing to provide guidance, mentorship, and moral support to the Club.

iv. Is not under any disciplinary sanction imposed by the University or any competent authority that would bring the Club into disrepute.

Section 4: Functions of the Patron

The Patron shall:

i. Serve as the ceremonial head of the Club.

ii. Provide guidance and mentorship to the Executive Council.

iii. Promote the ideals, objectives, and reputation of the Club.

iv. Facilitate relationships with the University, industry, government, alumni, and development partners where appropriate.

v. Attend major programmes of the Club whenever practicable.

vi. Encourage unity, professionalism, and innovation among members.

vii. Advise the Executive Council on matters referred to him or her.

viii. Perform any other advisory function consistent with this Constitution.

Section 5: Limitations

The Patron shall not:

i. Exercise executive authority over the Club.

ii. Interfere with elections or the electoral process.

iii. Directly control the finances or assets of the Club.

iv. Suspend or remove any Executive Officer.

v. Override any lawful decision of the General Assembly or the Executive Council.

Section 6: Vacancy

The office of Patron shall become vacant where the holder:

i. Resigns in writing.

ii. Dies.

iii. Becomes incapable of performing the functions of the office.

iv. Is removed by a two-thirds (2/3) majority of the General Assembly on the recommendation of the Executive Council for conduct prejudicial to the interests of the Club.

Section 7: Acting in the Absence of a Patron

Where the office of Patron becomes vacant, the Executive Council may designate a suitable person to act in an interim advisory capacity pending the appointment and ratification of a substantive Patron.

ARTICLE XVII — AMENDMENT OF THE CONSTITUTION

Section 1: Supremacy of the Constitution

This Constitution shall be the supreme governing document of the Abubakar Tafawa Balewa University Developers Club (ATBUDEVS).

Any rule, regulation, decision, policy, or practice inconsistent with this Constitution shall, to the extent of its inconsistency, be null and void.

Section 2: Proposal for Amendment

A proposal for the amendment of this Constitution may originate from:

i. The Executive Council.

ii. The Constitution Review Committee.

iii. A petition signed by not less than one-third (1/3) of the registered members of the Club.

Section 3: Notice of Amendment

Every proposed amendment shall be submitted to the Secretary General in writing.

The Secretary General shall circulate the proposed amendment to members not less than fourteen (14) days before the meeting at which it is to be considered.

Section 4: Consideration

The proposed amendment shall first be considered by the Constitution Review Committee, which shall submit its recommendations to the General Assembly.

Section 5: Approval

A proposed amendment shall be deemed passed if supported by not less than two-thirds (2/3) of the members present and voting at a duly constituted General Assembly.

Section 6: Commencement

An approved amendment shall take effect immediately upon adoption unless the resolution approving the amendment provides otherwise.

ARTICLE XVIII — INTERPRETATION

Section 1

The Executive Council shall have the initial responsibility for interpreting the provisions of this Constitution.

Where any dispute arises regarding such interpretation, the matter shall be referred to the General Assembly, whose decision shall be final.

Section 2

In interpreting this Constitution, words importing:

i. The masculine gender shall include the feminine gender and vice versa.

ii. The singular shall include the plural and vice versa, where the context so admits.

iii. References to persons shall include bodies corporate where applicable.

Section 3

Where any matter is not expressly provided for in this Constitution, the General Assembly may make a resolution consistent with the objectives of the Club and the regulations of Abubakar Tafawa Balewa University until such matter is incorporated by constitutional amendment.

ARTICLE XIX — TRANSITIONAL AND SAVING PROVISIONS

Section 1

Upon the adoption of this Constitution, the inaugural Executive Council shall continue in office until the first constitutionally conducted election.

Section 2

All decisions, actions, appointments, programmes, and activities lawfully undertaken before the coming into force of this Constitution shall remain valid unless inconsistent with its provisions.

Section 3

Every officer serving at the commencement of this Constitution shall comply with its provisions within a reasonable time as may be determined by the Executive Council.

Section 4

Any existing regulation, guideline, or policy of the Club shall remain in force to the extent that it is not inconsistent with this Constitution.

ARTICLE XX — CITATION AND COMMENCEMENT

Section 1: Citation

This Constitution may be cited as the Constitution of the Abubakar Tafawa Balewa University Developers Club (ATBUDEVS).

Section 2: Commencement

This Constitution shall come into force on the date of its adoption by the General Assembly of the Club.

Section 3: Repeal

Upon the commencement of this Constitution, every previous constitution, guideline, regulation, or practice inconsistent with its provisions shall stand repealed to the extent of such inconsistency.
